

39th Annual Destin Seafood Festival

Application for Artwork

This year's theme: The Historical Destin Harbor; "Then and Now."

I, the undersigned, understand that if my submitted design and original artwork is selected, then I will fulfill all obligations for the Destin Seafood Festival Committee listed below:

1. Art must display "39th Annual Destin Seafood Festival" and the year (2017). It is recommended that the name "39th Annual Destin Seafood Festival" and the year be added separately (added after selection) so art can still be used if not selected. We will assist with this but please understand that this will be added to your submission if selected.*
2. As the poster winner, I understand that my original artwork will become the property of the Destin Seafood Festival otherwise known as DSF. Furthermore, I understand that if my artwork is selected I am releasing all rights to the DSF to reproduce the chosen artwork on T-shirts, posters, festival collateral and any other related items.
3. The winner of the 2017 Destin Seafood Festival poster contest will be awarded a $500 cash prize and be given the option of a complimentary booth to display other personal artwork separate from any Destin Seafood Festival artwork, past or present. The winning artist will also be featured on the DSF website and social media including their personal website and social media.
4. The DSF will obtain ALL proceeds from the sale of the T-shirts, posters, festival collateral and any other related items pertaining to the Festival and the selected artwork.
5. Winning artist will also be required to sign up to 150 proofs and or prints; quantity to be determined by the DSF not to exceed 150. All expenses associated with the reproduction of the poster will be incurred by the Festival.
6. The winning artist will be asked to submit a written bio and photograph for promotion.

I, the undersigned, understand that if my submitted design and original artwork is not selected, then my artwork may not be reproduced for the sale or otherwise with words that may cause one to believe that the artwork represents the official Destin Seafood Festival poster.

- Artwork that is in violation includes, but is not limited to, artwork that references the following words in any combined order: Destin, Seafood, Festival, official, art, poster, or current year.
- Any artwork displaying these words cannot be displayed and/or sold without request/review/consent by the Destin Seafood Festival committee approval.
- I fully understand and acknowledge that the Destin Seafood Festival is vested with sole authority and discretion to determine whether a violation of this agreement has occurred.
- I hereby waive any and all rights to damages arising out of or in any way related to the prohibition of the sale of any artwork or the termination of my participation in the Destin Seafood Festival pursuant to this agreement.
- I give the Destin Seafood Festival unconditional use of my artwork, if it is selected as the official poster for the 39th Annual Destin Seafood Festival

The Destin Seafood Festival Committee, as official promoters and organizers of the Destin Seafood Festival, retain the sole propriety over all aspects of the festival, which include official poster, official t-shirt, and vendor selections.

All money raised by the Destin Seafood Festival fund will provide programs for the Destin Charter Boat Association and various local charities annually. Your participation and cooperation is greatly appreciated. Applications are due by Noon on Friday, June 16th, 2017. The winner will be notified by Friday, June 30, 2017. The winner will be announced to the public via social media and print outlets. Judging: the Festival hosts an event welcoming sponsors, property hosts, and City and County elected officials to vote on anonymous entries selecting the winner. We do share all entries via social media and credit all participants after the voting process.

THANK YOU!!
